OPEN FORUM

- a) Will there be any changes in the Parish Councils approach to communication?
The Clerk confirmed Facebook is an agenda item for discussion at the next Property meeting.
- b) The Parish Council website remains out of date.
The Clerk reported other priorities at the current time however assurance given that the update will be attended to.
- c) Neighbourhood Plan web pages still require attention.
The Clerk recommended reminders be sent.
- d) In breach of the transparency Code.
Councillor Hitchins acknowledged this.
- e) When will the charitable donations policy be available?
The Clerk confirmed this is an agenda item for discussion at the next Property meeting and will be on the Parish Council's website once written.
- f) There is an issue with the Local Neighbourhood Plan (NHP) in that District Council is not responding to requests/updates and with the Councillor Hitchins having opted out as he has declared an interest; it is unsure how to take forward. District Councillor for Woolwell, Councillor Mrs Hopwood, receives responses from Plymouth, Dartmoor etc and agreed to represent constituency interest, but it is not happening.
Councillor Hitchins reported that he is open to criticism no matter what his decision and whilst he will not enter into any discussion, after the meeting, he will provide named contacts who can assist.

DISTRICT COUNCIL REPORT

Councillor Mrs Hopwood's report was read in her absence:

- Walk Talk and Tea in Woolwell, held on Saturdays from 10.30 to 12 is nearing the end of its pilot. Hopefully enough interest has been generated to continue this group as it is an excellent way for local residents to meet each other whilst having a gentle stroll.
- Woolwell Fun day 19 August. The Woolwell Centre has agreed to this and taken on the lion's share of organising. The programme is yet to be finalised but will roughly consist of several large bouncy castles and slides, a large outdoor screen showing a Disney film at 5pm and later on Grease. Updates will follow. Looking to form a committee to help towards the day, if anyone is interested in joining the committee please contact Councillor Mrs Hopwood.

- The Regulation 19 consultation for the Joint Local Plan ended yesterday with all comments going directly to the Inspector for the examination in public. When a date for this is known it will be advised.
- PC Dingley undertook a speed watch on the main Woolwell road last month and spoke to a few individuals who were exceeding the speed limit.
- This weekend saw the arrival of a traveller encampment at the end of Towerfield Drive. Councillor Mrs Hopwood reported to Devon County Council who will now issue at Part 1 notice to the travellers which then goes to court to be executed, the process takes a few weeks.
- There was an attempted theft in Woolwell over the weekend. Two individuals have been interviewed and bailed pending further enquiries; they are not local to Woolwell. Residents, quite rightly, are feeling a little apprehensive at the moment and PC Dingley has offered to speak to anyone who wishes to contact her about security advice.

Councillor Hitchins reported:

- District Council undertaking a review of waste services and one consideration is charging for the collection of garden waste.
Councillor Blake reported composting and garden waste was the only area making a profit. General consensus if proposed charging is given the go ahead is there will be more fly tipping. Councillor Hitchins reported contractor changed; will wait to see what is agreed.
- Polling stations ready for the two forthcoming elections.
- Parish is seeing an increase in fly tipping, all incidents have been reported and clearance is awaited.
- Councillor Hitchins reported that he is spending more time on neighbourhood disputes, i.e. extensions going over rights of way and boundary issues.
