Police Volunteers needed for Woolwell.

Do you have a passion to make a difference? Could you be a 'Police Volunteer'? If you answered YES to these then read on.

To apply please email PC Tamsyn Dingley @ tamsyn.dingley@devonandcornwall.pnn.police.co.uk

Provide your full name, DOB and home address. PC Dingley will send you an 'Eligibility form' for completion and return for consideration. This is not a role to take on if you CANNOT commit to regular times/dates. It does require commitment and you will need to be able to cope with the cold and standing outside for an hour or so. A lot of time and effort will be invested in volunteers so commitment and longevity is vital.

WOOLWELL WALK, TALK AND TEA

Call Adrian on: 01752 307128 or email: adrian.cable@plymouth.gov.uk
Join us for a social and gentle walk starting outside Devonshire House Residential Home 10.30am every Saturday. We finish at the Woolwell Centre for a chat and a cuppa.
(Joining our friends in the Memory Café every other week)

We will be looking to add a longer walk in the coming weeks, please let us know if you are interested.

Moor's Edge U3A

If you are retired or semi-retired the University of the Third Age might be just what you need!

The Moors Edge U3A meeting will be held on Thursday 13 July and our talk will be on "Water Aid"
We meet at the Woolwell Centre at 2.30pm, new members welcome.

Dartmoor National Park has launched the Otter Trails.

How good are you at being a moor otter spotter?
100 Moor Otters have been positioned around Dartmoor, gateway towns and other surprise locations. Track them down for a chance to win prizes!
